

Thank You For Your Offerings – Due to the current COVID restrictions, the government guidance has requested that we refrain from passing the offering plate in our worship service. Stewardship and giving is, however, still an important element of our worship of God, who calls us to present unto Him “ourselves, our souls and our bodies” (Rom 12:1). Please note, that the offering plates are located at the entrances to the sanctuary and on the table in front of the pulpit. Your offerings may be placed there (either on your way in or your way out from the service). We give thanks to God for his goodness and blessing, which enable us to give generously toward our work together.

KENTVILLE CATECHISM

Q: Why is love so important to God?

A: God commands his people to love because God is love. The Father, Son, and Spirit live with a holy love for one another and have saved us so that we can love. Those who love know God and his grace.

Scripture: Luke 10:27, 1 John 4:7-21

We welcome all to the Lord's Supper who know Jesus as their Saviour and Lord, the One who has reconciled us to God and who has laid claim to our lives. If this is not yet your faith and you would like to explore what it means to know Jesus, please talk with one of our pastors.

On Communion Sunday, we also give people the opportunity to contribute toward compassionate ministries for helping with specific needs. This benevolent offering is a generous gift or compassionate act of kindness. For example, through this offering we help with food assistance, we participate in the Christmas hamper program, we respond to emergency needs in crisis, etc.

For the safety of yourself and others please

- ❖ Sit with your household unit or pre-determined social group in a marked pew.
- ❖ Wear your mask covering during the entire Service.
- ❖ You are invited to sing softly.
- ❖ Move quickly through the foyer area so others may pass.
- ❖ Remain physically distant from others at all times.

Thank you for your cooperation and consideration of others by turning your phones off or setting them to silence during the morning worship service.

Kentville Baptist is a Scent-Free Place of Worship

Please be scent-sensitive and refrain from wearing heavily scented perfumes, colognes and products, as there are individuals in our church family who have allergies to these items.

JUST A THOUGHT . . . (a slow journey through John)

Read John 14:28-29

Jesus had spoken earlier of his leaving and coming (13:33- 14:3; 14:18, 23). He seems to speak of his coming in the future as well as his coming to his disciples in this life. The Spirit will come too! There is much that happens when our expectant Jesus is exalted in the presence of his great Father. Those who love Jesus and trust him rejoice in what this means for him. He is our boast.

How do I express my joy over what has happened to Jesus?

SONGS OF WORSHIP

In Christ Alone

In Christ alone my hope is found,
He is my light, my strength, my song;
This cornerstone, this solid ground,
firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
when fears are stilled, when strivings cease!

My Comforter, my All in All,
here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone! Who took on flesh,
Fullness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness,
Scorned by the ones He came to save;

Till on that cross as Jesus died,
The wrath of God was satisfied
For ev'ry sin on Him was laid;
here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground His body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain:
Then bursting forth in glorious Day
Up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me,
For I am His and He is mine
Bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death,
This is the pow'r of Christ in me;
From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No pow'r of hell, no scheme of man,
Can ever pluck me from His hand;
Till He returns or calls me home,
Here in the pow'r of Christ I'll stand,
Here in the pow'r of Christ I'll stand!
