

Thank You For Your Offerings – Due to the current COVID restrictions, the government guidance has requested that we refrain from passing the offering plate in our worship service. Stewardship and giving is, however, still an important element of our worship of God, who calls us to present unto Him “ourselves, our souls and our bodies” (Rom 12:1). Please note, that the offering plates are located at the entrances to the sanctuary and on the table in front of the pulpit. Your offerings may be placed there (either on your way in or on your way out from the service). We give thanks to God for his goodness and blessing, which enable us to give generously toward our work together.

KENTVILLE CATECHISM

Q: What happens when God's faithful people die?

A: We don't become angels looking down on our loved ones or live in the hearts of those who loved us. Our spirits are with God. Our dead bodies "sleep", waiting for Jesus to call them to a new resurrection life.

Scripture: John 5:25, 11:21-26; 1 Corinthians 15:50-57

Thank you for joining us in worship.

We invite you to fill in the welcome card in the pew rack or our guest book.

Anyone may use the reverse side of the card for prayer items or questions.

Completed cards may be placed on the offering plate.

We hope you feel welcome here and that you will worship with us again.

COMMUNION NEXT WEEK: Next week we will be celebrating the Lord's Supper together. Our apostle Paul urges us to recognize the body of Christ (meaning our brothers and sisters in Jesus) whenever we gather for communion. So let's do something else Paul mentions: examine our hearts during this week for any lack of respect or love toward any whom Christ has redeemed and to whom he has joined us in one body, so we can join together next Sunday with joy and in true unity.

Nova Scotia Phase 5 - the province of NS has moved to a modified 5th phase of its re-opening plan. Highlights include a continuation of the indoor masking regulations; the lifting of most other restrictions, including physical distancing and all gathering limits; the implementation of a proof of vaccination policy (Proof of vaccination is not required to attend Sunday worship, but is required for most other church activities, meetings, etc., including weddings and funerals). To read about the changes, please consult <https://novascotia.ca/reopening-plan/phase-five/>, <https://novascotia.ca/coronavirus/proof-of-full-vaccination-policy/>. If you have any questions, please reach out to Rev. Dave or Rev. Devin.

Thank you for your cooperation and consideration of others by turning your phones off or setting them to silence during the morning worship service.

Kentville Baptist is a Scent-Free Place of Worship

Please be scent-sensitive and refrain from wearing heavily scented perfumes, colognes and products, as there are individuals in our church family who have allergies to these items.

Kentville Baptist one of the ways we support each other is through a Prayer Line. People in the church have committed themselves to pray privately for people and situations about which they are notified. Prayer concerns are shared only with the knowledge and permission of those for whom prayer is being sought. If you have a prayer request please contact Pastor Dave by phone at: 902-678-3162 (church) or 902-681-2264 (home) or Karen Wilder at (902) 681-0116 to get the Prayer Line in motion.

Deacons' Prayer List: In the bulletin each week, the Deacons are including the names of people in our church family who are unable to worship with us on a regular basis. We invite you to remember these people in prayer, phone calls or visits. This week please keep Dorothy Beach, Dorothy Blenkhorn and Mary Jean Brown in prayer.

JUST A THOUGHT . . . (a slow journey through John)

Read John 15:5-6

Jesus uses the image of a many-branched vine to urge his disciples to remain faithful to him after his departure, as life without him is fruitless and futile. While apart from him physically, they will be joined to him in Spirit and the power that resided in him will now course through them. They are sustained by his heavenly life, so it is impossible for them to do anything without him!

How is my life fruitful?

Don't Forget! Clocks are moved back an hour on November 7th.

SONGS OF WORSHIP

Worthy of My Praise (I Will Worship)

I will worship (I will worship)
With all of my heart (with all of my heart)
I will praise You (I will praise You)
With all of my strength (all my strength)
I will seek You (I will seek You)
All of my days (all of my days)
I will follow (I will follow)
All of Your ways (all Your ways)

(Chorus)

I will give You all my worship
I will give You all my praise
You alone I long to worship
You alone are worthy of my praise

I will bow down (I will bow down)
And hail You as King (and hail You as King)
I will serve You (I will serve You)
Give You everything (give You everything)
I will lift up (I will lift up)

My eyes to Your throne (my eyes to Your throne)
I will trust You (I will trust You)
Trust You alone (trust You alone)

(Chorus twice)

He Knows My Name

I have a Maker,
He formed my heart;
before even time began
my life was in His hand.

(Chorus)

He knows my name,
He knows my every thought;
He sees each tear that falls
and hears me when I call.

I have a Father,
He calls me His own;
He'll never leave me,
no matter where I go.

(chorus x2)

(tag after second chorus)
...and hears me when I call.

CHURCH FAMILY NEWS

*LAST DAY TO PLACE AN ORDER!  Baked Beans and Brown Bread Sale – Once again this year the Ladies Auxiliary are offering Baked Beans and a loaf of Brown Bread in lieu of our annual Christmas Tea. Orders will be taken until Sunday, October 31. We are hoping to have the orders ready over a 2-week period. This year the cost will be $12. Order forms are in the bulletin as well as in the foyer.

Note from the Quilting Group: The Quilters have resumed weekly meetings to work on quilting projects in the Parlour! Presently they have started working on a large project and are in need of experienced quilters to join their group. Also, during the time away from meeting at the church, an assortment of baby quilts have been made for purchase. Please contact Myrna Conrad by calling (902) 678-2804 or by leaving your contact information at the church office if you would like to discuss joining the group if you are an experienced quilter or have interest in a purchasing a baby quilt.

Acadia's Centre for Baptist and Anabaptist Studies (ACBAS) has just launched an oral history project: Atlantic Baptist Stories. This project aims to collect your story, the stories of Baptists in Atlantic Canada. No matter your story, we would like to hear from you! We are looking for a wide variety of people: those who recently became Baptist; those who have been Atlantic Canadian Baptists their entire lives; members of any generation; or those who moved to Atlantic Canada more recently. To participate, visit our website at <http://acadiadv.ca/acbas/oral-history-project/>, record your story on your computer or smartphone, and upload it to the website. If you would rather be interviewed over the phone, via Zoom, or in-person, contact acbas@acadiau.ca. We are looking forward to hearing from you soon!

Note from Community Ministries: The emergency Food assistance Program here at KUBC is still on hold due to COVID restrictions. The Board of Community Ministries would like our church family to be aware that financial donations are being given from the benevolent Fund to our local Fundy Food bank, open Arms and the salvation Army as a way to continue supporting those in need in our community. We will make you aware when we will be accepting "Food items" again for this program. Thank you for continuing to support this important ministry by giving financially to the benevolent offering.
